Dear Mr. Morisy:

This letter is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (GSA number 239727) dated March 31, 2013, in which you requested a copy of the meeting minutes of the Federal Real Property Advisory Group (FRPAG) meetings from the last five years.

GSA is withholding 59 pages of meeting minutes from all seven of the FRPAG meetings that took place over the last five years. This is done pursuant to the fifth statutory exemption of FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5), because public disclosure of this information would likely stifle honest and frank communication within the agency and result in a chilling effect on agency deliberations.

This constitutes a full denial under FOIA. You have a right to appeal the denial of information withheld. To do so, you must write within 120 days of your receipt of this letter to:

Freedom of Information Act Office (H1C)
U.S. General Services Administration
1275 First Street, NE, Room 1263
Washington, DC 20417

Your appeal should contain a brief statement of the reasons why you believe the requested information should be released. Enclose a copy of your initial request and a copy of this letter. Both the appeal letter and envelope should be marked prominently, "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

U.S. General Services Administration
1275 First Street, NE
Washington, DC 20417
Telephone: (202) 501-0800
